Fatherhood and Why It's Important
Proverbs 14:26

Whoever fears the Lord has a secure fortress, and for their children it will be a refuge. Proverbs 14:26

Key Concept: A father's faith serves as a hedge of needed protection for his children.

- The concern of parents is for their children, even above themselves.
- Why is it important for our children to have shelter and refuge in this world?
- It's the parents' fear of the Lord that is a refuge for their child.
- This presupposes the parents fear the Lord.
- The actions of a father have very real effects on their children, for better or for worse.
